The first order of business was the approval of the minutes of the meeting last month Robert commented that Chip did a good job in putting the minutes together; just one oversight that LTG Bob Carlson should have said MG Bob Carlson, other than that it looks really good.

Next on the agenda was the treasures report. Edgar reported there was no change in the account.

Lee took over to give an update from the Eastern chapter in regard to the Fort Belvoir, VA, 19-21 May 2023 event. The planning is underway. Our priority was to secure tickets for the US Army Museum. Twenty-five tickets have been allocated to us for association members and their guests. Michele will give an update on the block of hotel rooms for hotel reservations at Fort Belvoir at the next meeting.

The museum outing is scheduled for Saturday morning after breakfast. We'll meet at the museum at about 0930. Lee will hand out the tickets. Lunch is scheduled for noon on our own. We'll depart the museum and head back to our respective hotels at approximately 1500.

Note: we will have a Zoom Meeting on the evening of the 23rd to discuss the dinner plans. We'll have more information then.

For Saturday Afternoon 20 May 2023

1500 to 1700 - Return to Hotel individual transportation.

1830 - Depart via individual transportation for dinner

1900 to 1945 - Cash Bar at Dinner Location (TBD)

1945 to 2030 – Dinner is served.

2030 to 2115 – Dinner Speaker (TBD)

2115 – Return to Hotel

Lee also discussed other options that people might be interested in.

We have to find a restaurant, this will be addressed at the 23 March, Zoom Meeting. Lee also asked if we have heard from MG Carlson, we are still trying to finalize the itinerary and other topics.

Any other information will be addressed at the zoom meeting on the 23rd. Information will be added to these notes before the 1 April meeting.

Here are the notes from last night's meeting (23 March 2023).

- Maggiano's Little Italy, Springfield, VA confirmed as dinner location for Saturday evening 20 May.
- Agreed to include a 20% tip.
- The cost of dinner will be $65 per person.
- Robert Chevas as Association president will sign the restaurant contract.
- Edgar Montalvo as treasurer will arrange for payment by Association credit card.
- Dinner will include a cash bar.
- Dinner speaker still to be confirmed by Eric Larson.
- Dinner will be served family style.
- The menu was reviewed, and items selected.
- Draft registration form will be updated by Lee Pryor ASAP.
- The deadline for registration is set for Friday 14 April.

Arlington National Cemetery is a suggestion as possible get together for Sunday morning as a group event.

Robert received the Certificate and Medal for Mr. Murphy's Silver De Fleury. Robert questioned if we should present it to him now. Eric suggested since it is a De Fleury, we should hold it off until the November dinner at Argonne.

Robert asked Edgar if he had gotten any information from Dewayne Nelson in regard to the 50th anniversary of the TEC in 1995. Dewayne provided the audio presentation and video presentation of the celebration from the dinner on a videotape converted to CD. Edgar has confirmed receipt.

John Gessner reported that Argonne is now open for banquets and meetings again. He also stated that he has penned in the 416th TEC Dinner for 4 November; more details will follow.

Michele reported that she will publish the final version of the month. Eric affirmed that he understood it to be correct and publishing.
